

Edna Molewa

Minister of Water and Environmental Affairs, South Africa

Edna Molewa (54) is an Economic Leadership Graduate from Wharton School of Business in United States of America; she also completed a leadership course at Kennedy School of Governance and currently studying towards B.com degree with the University of South Africa.

Before Edna Molewa joined the ministerial field she was a teacher at Moloto and Makunyane secondary schools back in 1976 to 1981. She is one of the people who served the underground structures of the liberation movement between the period of 1976 and 1990.

Besides her current role, she has been a member of the African National Congress Women's League National Executive Council since 2003, Chairperson of the African National Congress Women's League (ANCWL) in the North West Province, South Africa. Lastly she is a member of the Provincial Executive Committee (PEC).

Ms Edna Molewa is the former Minister of Social Development and served this role from 11 May 2009 to 30 October 2010, she was then appointed Minister of Water and Environmental Affairs from November 2010 to date.