

Short profile „Die Arche e.V.“

The religious charity for children and young people “Die Arche e.V.” was founded in 1995 in Berlin-Hellersdorf. The organization now has five centres in Germany (Munich, Potsdam, Berlin, Hamburg, Düsseldorf), and four more are planned (Leipzig, Cologne, Frankfurt, Memmingen). The object of the organization is to take children in need off the streets and provide them with a regular daily routine. It supports needy children by providing them with a free midday meal and tutoring and engaging in preventive work. The work of this organization, which is active all over Germany, is supported by celebrities such as Günther Jauch, Henry Maske, Susan Sideropoulos and Wladimir Klitschko.
