

Christian Oecking, CEO (act.)

In December 2009 Christian Oecking (47) was appointed acting CEO of Siemens IT Solutions and Services, one of the world's leading providers of IT solutions and services.

Oecking was born in Dortmund. After obtaining a degree in engineering, he began his professional career in 1985 as a management consultant and software developer at Drigus GmbH. In 1993 he transferred to EDS Electronic Data Systems Deutschland GmbH where, as a member of the management team, he was responsible for business development for the manufacturing and trade sectors. In 1998 he moved to Siemens Business Services as Head of Outsourcing Germany. After 2001 Oecking was responsible for the global outsourcing business at SBS and subsequently at Siemens IT Solutions and Services.
