Ad-hoc Announcement according to § 15 WpHG (Securities Trading Act)

Siemens: Requardt succeeds Reid-Anderson as new Healthcare Sector CEO

Hermann Requardt will be the new CEO of the Siemens Healthcare Sector. He will also retain his position as Chief Technology Officer and head of the Corporate Technology department.

The Managing Board of Siemens AG appointed Michael Sen, currently head of the company's Investor Relations department, as new Healthcare Sector CFO. He succeeds Klaus Stegemann.

Earlier at its meeting today, the Supervisory Board of Siemens AG accepted the request of Jim Reid-Anderson to resign from his positions as CEO of the Healthcare Sector and member of the Managing Board. He is stepping down for personal reasons. The appointments take effect on December 1, 2008, and Reid-Anderson's contract will be terminated on November 30.

This document contains forward-looking statements and information – that is, statements related to future, not past, events. These statements may be identified by words such as “expects,” “looks forward to,” “anticipates,” “intends,” “plans,” “believes,” “seeks,” “estimates,” “will,” “project” or words of similar meaning. Such statements are based on our current expectations and certain assumptions, and are, therefore, subject to certain risks and uncertainties. A variety of factors, many of which are beyond Siemens' control, affect our operations, performance, business strategy and results and could cause the actual results, performance or achievements of Siemens to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements that may be expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. For us, particular uncertainties arise, among others, from changes in general economic and business conditions (including margin developments in major business areas); the challenges of integrating major acquisitions and implementing joint ventures and other significant portfolio measures; changes in currency exchange rates and interest rates; introduction of competing products or technologies by other companies; lack of acceptance of new products or services by customers targeted by Siemens; changes in business strategy; the outcome of pending investigations and legal proceedings, especially the corruption investigation we are currently subject to in Germany, the United States and elsewhere; the potential impact of such investigations and proceedings on our ongoing business including our relationships with governments and other customers; the potential impact of such matters on our financial statements; as well as various other factors. More detailed information about certain of these factors is contained throughout this report and in our other filings with the SEC, which are available on the Siemens website, www.siemens.com, and on the SEC's website, www.sec.gov. Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those described in the relevant forward-looking statement as expected, anticipated, intended, planned, believed, sought, estimated or projected. Siemens does not intend or assume any obligation to update or revise these forward-looking statements in light of developments which differ from those anticipated.
